

what men need

m gallery
berlin

agata drogowska
simone kornfeld
ola kujawska
kasia kujawska - murphy kasia molga - delija
anita pasikowska - pilecka

Agata Drogowska graduated from the Academy of Fine Art in Poznań. She received a diploma in painting and plastic arts from Prof. Jerzy Kalucki and Prof. Alicja Kępińska.

In 1999, together with Mirek Kaczmarek and Katarzyna Kujawska - Murphy, she established the InterCity Association, Young Artists of Different Media.

Her fields of work include painting, graphics, urban space arrangement, artistic film.

She is a full-time co-worker of women's and home decorating magazines. In the 2002-2003 season together with Mirek Kaczmarek she was the artistic director of the „Nation for Itself” gallery in the Polish Theatre in Poznań.

In 2003 she organised the Artistic Benches Action for the 750th anniversary of the settling of Poznań.

She is now occupied with performing arts in urban space: revitalising places through art and artistic stills.

„Sick Home - Home Sick”. 2007, art film, 8 min, still 1. M Gallery, Bert

